

Active Travel

There is a new development regarding Active Travel with a further consultation by NCC on the Rushmere Road temporary cycle lane segregation. Northamptonshire County Council are seeking the views of local residents, road users and other relevant groups on changes to the temporary light segregation on the southbound (downhill) cycle lane on Rushmere Road in Northampton.

NCC are seeking views on four options.

Descriptions of each option, plans and other associated documents along with details of how to respond to the consultation can be found on our consultation hub.
